

SYLLABUS

Geography of India

Max. Marks : 70

Time : 3 Hours

SECTION A

Introduction : India in the context of South Asia, Asia and the world.

Land : Relief, Drainage, Climate, Vegetation and Soils. Minerals and power resources.

SECTION B

Minerals : (Iron-ore, Manganese, Copper, Gold) and power resources.

People : Numbers, Distribution, Density, Growth, Migration, Urbanization, Religious composition.

SECTION C

Economy : Agriculture - Main Characteristics of Indian agriculture, Land use pattern, Irrigation, Major crops (rice, wheat, jowar, maize, sugarcane, cotton, jute, tea, groundnut), areas of surplus and deficit food production, Problems of Indian agriculture.

SECTION D

Economy : Industries : Distribution and localization factors major industries (Iron and steel, cotton textiles, sugar, fertilizers, cement), role of public sector in Indian economy.

Transport : (Rail, road, airways and navigation), International trade.

Filling of a map of India covering the entire syllabus.

NOTE : STUDENTS ARE ADVISED TO COMPARE THE SYLLABUS WITH THE LATEST SYLLABUS OF THE CONCERNED UNIVERSITY. THE AUTHOR AND PUBLISHER HAS NO RESPONSIBILITY IF THE SYLLABUS GIVEN ABOVE DOES NOT MATCH WITH THEIR UNIVERSITY SYLLABUS.